

Conf-IRM 2020

SUBMISSION TYPES AND GUIDELINES

Full-Length Submissions

Submissions must be no more than 12 pages, including references, appendices and title page. All submissions must follow the submission template specifications. Submissions must be original and previously unpublished conceptual or empirical research manuscripts. Papers that are highly rated by the reviewers will be workshopped for submission to a supporting journal. The paper that best represents, in terms of quality and suitability, the theme and ideals of the conference will receive the "Best Paper Award" during the conference.

Research-in-Progress Submissions

Submissions must be no more than 7 pages. All research-in-progress submissions will be published in the conference proceedings as short papers.

Teaching Cases

We welcome submissions of teaching cases. The cases should be based on real situations and targeted at specific learning objectives. Cases should be no more than 12 pages and must be accompanied by instructor teaching notes, not included in the 12 pages. The teaching notes will not be published.

Workshop, Panel and Tutorial Submissions

Submissions must be no more than 3 pages. Proposals should include the objectives, topics to be covered and the full details of all presenters. Method of presentation is at the submitter's discretion; however, the submitter has the responsibility for providing his or her own panel members. All accepted proposals will appear in the conference proceedings.

IMPORTANT NOTES

While the primary language of the conferences is English. Track 10 will accept papers in Portuguese and Spanish as well as English.
