

Keynote panelist – September 11, 2021

William Hardin

Professor and Interim Dean, FIU Business

Panelist – “The Really Big Problems in Real Estate”

Dr. Hardin has an extensive publication record in the top real estate journals. His work has been published in Real Estate Economics, Journal of Real Estate Finance and Economics, Journal of Real Estate Research, Journal of Real Estate Portfolio Management, Journal of Real Estate Practice and Education, Journal of Property Investment and Finance, International Real Estate Review, Journal of Property Valuation and Investment, Journal of Shopping Center Research, and Assessment Journal. He has also presented his research at major real estate and finance conferences including those of the American Real Estate Society, the Asian Real Estate Society, the American Real Estate and Urban Economics Association, the Southern Finance Association, the Eastern Finance Association, and the Financial Management Association. In a recent article, he was ranked 11th globally in academic real estate research during the 2000-2006 period. In a recent set of articles in Journal of Real Estate Literature academic research ranking article, Dr. Hardin was ranked 2nd globally from 2009 to 2017.

Dr. Hardin is Co-Editor of Journal of Real Estate Practice and Education and is an elected member of the board of directors of the American Real Estate Society. He is also Director of Publications for the American Real Estate Society. He also serves on the editorial board of Journal of Real Estate Research and the editorial review board of The Appraisal Journal. Four of his papers have won best manuscript awards at the annual American Real Estate Society meetings. Dr. Hardin worked in commercial banking and development prior to earning his terminal degree. Dr. Hardin received his doctorate from Georgia State University.

Dr. Hardin, an internationally recognized expert on commercial real estate markets, financial markets and securitized real estate will be a keynote panelist at the Engaged Management Scholarship conference hosted by Florida International University on September 11, 2021.

