NEIGHBORS

FIU
NEW APPOINTMENTS MADE TO MBA PROGRAM

Sarah Perez has been named executive director of Executive MBA program, and Joanne Edwards has been named program manager for the Evening MBA program.

Perez began her career at FIU’s College of Business Administration as assistant director of the Executive MBA program in February 2003. Before entering education, she held marketing management positions at Information Handling Services Group in Englewood, Colo., and the New Zealand Dairy Board in Guatemala.

Most recently, Edwards was an academic advisory and registration specialist at Kaplan College. Prior to that she worked as an academic advisor at Florida Atlantic University’s College of Business and taught courses in learning strategies and human development at the business school.