

THE SOUTH FLORIDA BUSINESS JOURNAL

Forward Edition

December 3-9, 2004

FIU opens consulting firm

Florida International University's College of Business Administration (CBA) said it has launched a management consulting and training coordination arm.

The Miami university said the mission of its International Advisory Services Group (IASG) will be to help clients in Latin America and the Caribbean meet their goals and achieve peak business performance. The IASG operation is to be housed in the CBA's Knight Ridder Center for Excellence in Management.

Clips From: O'CONNELL
&
GOLDBERG