

The Miami Herald

NEIGHBORS NEWS

WEST KENDALL

FIU STUDENTS RAISE THOUSANDS FOR KIDS

Florida International University business students raised more than $20,000 to help donate specialized computer equipment to benefit 90 special needs students from Project Thrive, an early intervention program for kids with developmental disabilities in West Kendall.

The students are from FIU's BBA+ weekend program, which offers undergraduate level classes over the weekend.