

Avisena Named Minority Leading Innovator By Greater Miami Chamber of Commerce

---

News Date: 03/24/2008

Outlet: PRWeb

Revenue cycle management company Avisena has been named South Florida's Leading Innovator in the Marketplace among the top 100 minority businesses in the South Florida Market. Miami, FL (PRWEB) March 24, 2008 -- Avisena, a revenue cycle management company specializing in medical billing services and practices, has been named the leading Innovator in the Marketplace among the top 100 Minority Business finalists by the Greater Miami Chamber of Commerce. A complete list of winners is available at www.avisena.com. 'We are honored to have been selected for this esteemed award, especially given the extremely successful companies in the South Florida Market. Winners demonstrated achievements in overall growth, as well as excellence in innovation, employee training, and future expansion plans. Headquartered in Miami, Florida, Avisena is a revenue cycle management company that helps medical practices to collect more, spend less, and live better. Avisena's approach combines experienced medical professionals, highly efficient back-office processes resulting in the highest collection rates in the industry. Avisena currently serves physician practices nationwide with their medical billing software solutions. The 2008 Top 100 Minority Business of the Year is presented by the University of South Florida College of Business, Florida International University College of Business Administration, ICG, Goldstein, Scheckter Koch, and Ho