

Local resources for entrepreneurs

- SCORE. Workshops, online training and free coaching at local branches, www.score.org, www.scoremiami.org, www.browardscore.org
- Florida Small Business Development Centers. Counseling and training at centers in South Florida and around the state, www.floridasbdc.org
- Barry University, Barry Institute for Community and Economic Development. Counseling, workshops and training for Miami-Dade small businesses through the Entrepreneurial Institute, www.barry.edu/biced
- Broward College. Offers a 24-credit entrepreneurship certificate, www.broward.edu. For noncredit business courses, www.broward.edu/ce
- Florida International University, Pino Global Entrepreneurship Center. Workshops, webinars and more, including the "FIU Pino Shark Tank" June 18 where entrepreneurs can pitch their businesses and be critiqued by entrepreneurs and investors, www.entrepreneurship.fiu.edu. The center also sponsors the Business Plan Challenge.
- Miami Dade College. Offers a 12-credit entrepreneurship certificate program, www.mdc.edu/business. For noncredit classes, www.mdc.edu/ce. The Meek Entrepreneurial Education Center, www.mdc.edu/north/eec
- University of Miami, The Launch Pad. Workshops, networking, resources and coaching. Events open to the community include an elevator pitch contest with cash prizes in the fall, www.thelaunchpad.org
- Southern Florida Minority Supplier Development Council. Connects large businesses with minority businesses across South Florida, www.sfmsdc.org
- Incubate Miami. Start-up businesses in technology can get mentorship and office space, www.incubatemiami.com.