

■ IN THIS EDITION

FIBA Professor of Finance, John Zdanowicz, invited to speak on "Trade-Based Money Laundering and Terrorist Financing"

FIBA Professor of Finance, John Zdanowicz, invited to speak on "Trade-Based Money Laundering and Terrorist Financing"

FIBA and Florida International University professor John Zdanowicz has been invited to speak at the Nineteenth Annual Economic Crimes Institute Conference. The three day conference being held October 22-24 at the Bolger Center, U.S. Postal Inspection Service Training Academy in Potomac, MD will focus on both foreign and domestic economic crimes. .

The FIBA AML Institute endeavors to provide its members with educators who are leaders in their field and highly respected in the educational community. FIBA would like to congratulate Professor Zdanowicz on being invited to speak at the 2008 ECI Conference. Professor Zdanowicz will be sharing his expertise and presenting a session on Trade-Based Money Laundering and Terrorist Financing.

For more information click 2008 ECI Conference.