The FIU legacy: alumni at the top of their fields

Since opening in 1972, FIU has conferred more than 100,000 degrees to some 95,000 graduates. Many of our alumni have risen to prominence in a wide variety of fields and professions. The following exemplify the excellence of FIU alumni.

Carlos A. Migoya
Finance, B.B.A. '74
Business Administration, M.B.A. '76

One of South Florida's leading bankers, Carlos A. Migoya is regional president for First Union, Florida, and is responsible for the bank's operations in Miami-Dade and Monroe counties. An active civic leader, he is past chairman of the Greater Miami Chamber of Commerce, treasurer of the Orange Bowl Committee and Downtown Development Authority, and founder of Dade Partners for Safe Neighborhoods.
