

September 27, 2004

PEOPLE ON THE MOVE

Education

• Marci Richardson was appointed as coordinator of information and communication sciences for Florida International University's College of Business

Richardson

Administration. Richardson's responsibilities will include newsletters and contributions to other CBA publications, such as its alumni magazine. Additionally, she will serve as the liaison between the executive dean's office and the Business Student Council. Prior to joining the college, Richardson was a free-lance reporter for the South Florida Sun-Sentinel. ♦