FIU’s COLLEGE OF BUSINESS ADMINISTRATION’S SCHOOL OF ACCOUNTING LAUNCHES INTERAMERICAN CENTER FOR PROFESSIONAL DEVELOPMENT

WHAT: Florida International University’s College of Business Administration (CBA)’s School of Accounting will launch the Interamerican Center for Professional Development—a strategic alliance between the School and the Interamerican Accounting Association.

The objective of this partnership is to offer accounting certificate programs to actualize accountants in Latin America with the expectation that participants will go back to their countries with information on the latest accounting technologies. The CBA’s School of Accounting expects to hold about 20 seminars during the year, and courses are scheduled to begin in July 2003. Seminar topics will include: international accounting, advanced managerial accounting, forensic accounting, etc.

WHO: Expected to attend are the University Vice President for Academic Affairs Mark Rosenberg, the President of the Interamerican Accounting Association, and representatives from 33 accounting guilds representing 23 countries.

WHEN: 6:45 – 8 p.m.
Thursday, May 8

WHERE: FIU – Biscayne Bay Campus
Kovens Center
