FIU COLLEGE OF BUSINESS ADMINISTRATION APPOINTS TE-WEI WANG ASSISTANT PROFESSOR OF DECISION SCIENCES AND INFORMATION SYSTEMS

MIAMI – (September 25, 2001) – Dr. Joyce J. Elam, dean of FIU’s College of Business Administration, has announced that Te-Wei Wang, Ph.D., has recently been appointed to the position of assistant professor in the Department of Decision Sciences and Information Systems. In his new role, he will be responsible for teaching courses in informational and systems analysis and design as well as pursue research in e-commerce, systems analysis, and design and supply chain management.

Wang has been a visiting instructor within the department since August 2000. Prior to that he was an instructor at Southern Illinois University at Carbondale where he earned his Ph.D. He received his master’s degree from the University of Missouri—Rolla.

“Dr. Wang has been with us for more than a year and during that time he has demonstrated his dedication to helping our students achieve their goals,” Elam said. “His knowledge and skill in computer software is a tremendous asset to the College.”

Wang has taught systems analysis and design and has been a guest speaker at industry-related conferences throughout the United States. He is a member of the Association for Information Systems, Institute for Operations Research and the Management Science, American Production and Inventory Control Society, Decision Science Institute and the International Chinese Information Systems Society.
