FIU COLLEGE OF BUSINESS ADMINISTRATION NAMES
CLIFFORD R. PERRY ASSOCIATE DEAN OF ACADEMIC AFFAIRS AND UNDERGRADUATE PROGRAMS

MIAMI – (September 25, 2001) – Joyce J. Elam, Dean of Florida International University’s (FIU) College of Business Administration (CBA) has announced her appointment of Clifford R. Perry, Ph.D. as Associate Dean, Academic Affairs and Undergraduate Programs.

In his new capacity, Perry will be responsible for administering the College’s undergraduate degree programs and their assessment, administering the faculty recruitment, workload, evaluation, promotion and tenure processes, resolving both faculty and student concerns and issues and administering the College’s scholarship programs.

“Dr. Perry’s extensive experience in program, process, and human resource management are an asset to the College,” Elam said. “We will benefit tremendously from his leadership.”

Perry’s degrees include a B.S. and M.S. in mathematics and physics and a PhD in mathematics from Purdue University. His areas of expertise include mathematics, systems theory, corporate planning, human resources management, and organizational theory and practice.

In his professional capacity, Dr. Perry has conducted research and published works in the American Math Society Journal, Eastman Kodak’s internal documents and for General Motors Research Labs. In addition to his work at FIU, he is a senior organizational development consultant with a proven record of success in both the public and private sectors.

Dr. Perry currently is an active member of the Society of Human Resource Management, the American Society of Training and Development and the Public Relations Society of America.

Florida International University’s College of Business Administration (CBA), South Florida’s business education leader with unique expertise in international business and information technology (IT), is the second largest of FIU’s 16 schools and colleges, enrolling approximately 3,800 undergraduate and more than 900 graduate students each year. South Florida’s top-rated business school and one of only 405 business schools in the world accredited by the AACSB International – The Association to Advance Collegiate Schools of Business, the College offers the 8th largest part-time MBA program among this group. Its full-time International MBA program ranked at or near the top in a recent AACSB benchmarking study, and its IT faculty has been ranked among the top 20 (11th) in the U.S. in terms of research productivity. It is one of only 28 business schools to have received a Department of Education grant to establish and support a Center for International Business Education and Research.
