

The Herald

February 23, 2004

BUSINESS MONDAY

EDUCATION

SHIFLETT

BROWNER

YOUNG

HAAR

Florida International University's Chapman Graduate School of Business in the College of Business Administration has named three new directors. Barry Shiflett has been named director of career management services. Ellie Browner has been named director of graduate admissions and student services. Corinne Young has been named director of marketing and corporate relations. Shiflett was director of MBA career services and special projects at the J. Mack Robinson College of Business, Georgia State University. Browner has been with FIU's College of Business Administration since 1989. She was the director of the evening MBA program and also was director of the center for management development. Before joining FIU, she was planning analyst and training manager for the MIS department at Racal-Datacom. Young was executive director for the Institute for World Commerce Education at the University of Tampa. Jerry Haar has joined the faculty of the College of Business Administration in the department of management and international business. He also has been named director of the Institute of Family Business and Senior Research Fellow in the Global Entrepreneurship Center. He was director of the Inter-American Business and Labor Program at the North-South Center, University of Miami.

Clips From:

O'CONNELL
&
GOLDBERG