FIU students seek donations for needy kids

A group of students at Florida International University's College of Business Administration is asking individuals and businesses throughout South Florida to make donations of money or supplies before school begins.

The "Tools for School" community initiative, which works in conjunction with The Salvation Army and Miami-Dade's Community Partnership for the Homeless, is aimed at providing 400 needy K-12 students in Miami-Dade County with necessary supplies for the upcoming school year.

Please make checks payable to: The FIU Foundation; memo: Group #13, WBBA Community Project.

Monetary donations and school supplies may be mailed to: Sonia Gonzalez, C/O WBBA Community Project, College of Business Administration, Florida International University, 11200 SW 8th St.-RB 215, Miami 33199.

Leaders of the program ask that all donations be made by Aug. 16.
