PEOPLE on the MOVE

Real estate

• Sara Altman has joined the Aventura office of Coldwell Banker Residential Real Estate as a sales associate.

Hospitality

• Sampson Daruvalla was appointed entertainment and private events manager at the Royal Palm Crowne Plaza Resort in Miami Beach. Recently, Daruvalla worked with Ocean Drive Magazine as an advertising executive.

Education

• Alan Carsrud has been appointed clinical professor of entrepreneurship in the Management and International Business Department at Florida International University’s College of Business Administration. Carsrud will teach courses in the areas of corporate entrepreneurship, new venture initiation, business plan writing and preparation and family businesses. He will also be instrumental in launching the college’s Center for Global Entrepreneurship.

Architects

• Jorge Benavides and John W. Strandberg have joined REG Architects in West Palm Beach as architects. Benavides has a bachelor’s degree in architecture from the University of Florida and is a member of the American Institute of Architects. Strandberg has a bachelor’s degree in architecture from City College of New York and is president-elect of the Palm Beach chapter of the AIA.