A group of Florida International University students recently was inducted into Beta Gamma Sigma, a national honor society dedicated to encouraging and honoring academic achievement in the study of business as well as personal and professional excellence in the practice of business.

The 2003 FIU College of Business inductees include: William Wilson of Davie; Jessica Sanders of Weston; Marc Bernard, Curtis James, Joshua Scott Mcleod and Anya Swann, all of Pembroke Pines; Maria Behrens de Romero and Mario Sanchez, both of Hallandale Beach; Donya Halcott, Jorge Izquierdo, Maria Lisette Huertas and Juan Poggio, all of Miramar; Connie L. LaFlamme and Jose F. Perez-Rivas, both of Fort Lauderdale; Nardia Bailey of Lauderhill; and Paivi Merilainen of Coral Springs.

FIU’s College of Business Administration, based in Miami, enrolls about 3,400 students in its undergraduate program and more than 1,100 graduate students.
